Invitation

On behalf of Rector of the Powiślański University Dr Katarzyna Strzala-Osuch, prof. PSW and the Organizing Committee, we invite you to participate in the International Student Conference "Defining the Present, Shaping the Future: The Voice of Young Researchers", which will be held on May 13th, 2025 in Gdańsk.

Through presentations and discussions, attendees will have the opportunity to share their ideas, gain insights from experts, and engage in thought-provoking conversations. By focusing on the power of youth-driven research, this conference encourages students to not only reflect on the present but also to envision and actively contribute to the future of global research and discovery.
